

Maureen Block

Untitled
Mixed Media

This geometric and intricate piece was created by Brunswick based artist Maureen Block. The deep orange tones layer with rich golds and intense blacks to create a vibrant and vivid design. Simple linear and triangular forms combine to create a complex visual piece.

Laurie Burhoe
Local Garden
10" by 10" acrylic on wood

Laurie Burhoe celebrates the rich and fertile landscapes around us in her vivid and textured paintings. Laurie also manages KELT's LOCAL Garden, where this painting was born, celebrating the brightness and joy of the work there. A Bath artist, Laurie aims to create pleasing visual experiences, evoking the extraordinary in the simplest of images.

Mini CSA from KELT's LOCAL Garden

Enjoy local produce during the 2018 season! Stop by KELT's LOCAL Garden in Bath four times next summer to pick up local fruits and veggies that are helping kids get outside and learn about food! You could get:

Strawberries, Peaches, Mixed Greens, Garlic Scapes, Green Beans, Flowers, Carrots and Beets.

Artisan wooden bowl from Sewall Woods tree by Tom Edwards

These unique artisan wooden bowls were made especially for KELT! Artist Tom Edwards of Bath, Maine used KELT's first-ever harvest at Sewall Woods as an opportunity to accomplish both craftsmanship and conservation in one piece. This exclusive work belongs in the home of a land trust enthusiast.

Wayne Robbins Goldeneye

A local Bath artist, Wayne Robbins depicts the natural grace and beauty of the creatures he loves through wood. This beautiful sculpture of a Goldeneye duck presenting captures the essence of nature in hard, solid form, highlighting the connection between all living things. Here, Robbin's passion for the natural world is translated into a well known and loved form.